

Step into a world of opportunity

The PULSE International Promise

Our Commitment to you:

Helping you to find your perfect role, we will

-  Listen to you
-  Provide the best advice regarding the roles available and the countries that they are based in.
-  Always be honest - We won't guess, if we don't know, we will find out

When we have found you the perfect role, we will:

-  Guide you through the process - managing expectations and clearly marking out a timeline of events
-  Keep you informed - we will endeavour to continually update you on all areas of your assignment and country of choice
-  Continue to support you during and after placement - we'd like to work with you again

In return for:

-  Your commitment - working closely with us once the administration process has begun will ensure successful placement
-  Your Honesty - if your circumstances change, let us know.
-  Full information - we can only work with the information you supply
-  Wherever possible attend face to face interview
-  Patience - don't make hasty decisions until we have confirmed your move

